Sheriff Greg Champagne reports that the above subject was arrested following an altercation with his ex-girlfriend. Dawson allegedly approached the victim asking for money and her debit card. When the victim refused, Dawson head-butted the victim and took her debit card. Dawson then jumped in the victim's vehicle with their son inside and circled the business parking lot. Dawson then exited the driver's seat, but refused to completely exit the vehicle. He threatened the victim and demanded she drive him to an undetermined location. The victim drove to a business on Highway 90 in Luling where she then notified the Sheriff's Office. Dawson was arrested and booked accordingly.
