Sheriff Champagne Reminds Citizens to Lock Vehicles

Monday night between Midnight and 4 AM on Tuesday morning 14 separate vehicles were broken in to in the Ormond Subdivision located in Destrehan, Louisiana. Out of the 14 vehicles only one of the vehicles were locked.

Sheriff Champagne is asking residents to be extra vigilant in the general area of Shadow Lane and Ormond Oaks Drive where these burglaries took place. It is believed that these criminals likely approached and pulled door handles on more than just these 14 vehicles. He is also asking that if resident owner in that particular area has video surveillance to please contact Det. Erik Brass with the St. Charles Parish Sheriff's Office.

The Sheriff is also urging residents to lock your vehicles and remove all valuables from the inside.

If anyone has any information regarding these vehicle burglaries or any video surveillance from the Ormond Subdivision, please contact Det. Erik Brass at 985-783-1135 or 985-783-6807.
