Two Juvenile Suspects Also Arrested During Norco Christmas Parade

Yesterday the names of 3 Suspects were released who were arrested during a disturbance at the Norco Christmas Parade on Sunday, December 4th. The two juveniles listed below were also arrested in connection with this same incident.

Juvenile, 16, M
Norco, Louisiana
CHGS: Battery on a Police Officer with Injury
Resisting an Officer with Force
Resisting an Officer (3 cts.)
Dist. The Peace
Simple Criminal Damage Under $500

Juvenile, 14, F
Norco, Louisiana
CHGS: Simple Battery, Dist. The Peace,
Resisting by Refusing to Move On

While officers were attempting to arrest a suspect involved with this incident, the 16 year-old juvenile allegedly ran up from behind and punched an officer in the back of his head causing him to lose consciousness for several seconds and fall on his side. The deputy's duty holster was damaged during his fall. Three deputies attempted to arrest the 16 year-old juvenile, who continued to actively resist. After numerous verbal commands the 16 year-old was tased by officers, at which time he complied and was arrested and booked accordingly.

The 14 year-old juvenile attempted to run towards the officers making the arrest during this incident, but was stopped before she had a chance to strike any officers. She was then arrested and booked accordingly.
