Reward Offered for Luling Burglary

CrimeStoppers and family members of the victim's of a burglary on Monday afternoon are offering a reward of $2500 for information leading to the arrest of individual(s) who burglarized a home on River Road near Monsanto Recreational Park. The perpetrators made entrance to the home by breaking a rear door.

The victims, who are senior citizens with the husband being a WWII Veteran, are normally home during the day. Both left on separate errands for only a couple of hours when the burglars struck about 2PM in the afternoon. We strongly believe that the perpetrators were aware of the short absence of the homeowners.

Items taken include some miscellaneous jewelry, a 55 inch flat screen TV, a 30 cal. carbine (rifle) and a German Luger pistol , which the homeowner acquired during WWII in Germany.

Detectives are seeking information regarding this burglary and especially anyone attempting to sell the German Luger pistol or carbine. Anyone with information can call CrimeStoppers at 504-822-1111 or Lt. Donnie Smith at 985-783-1135. Citizens can also contact the our Communications Center at 985-783-6807 – 24 hours a day.
