Sheriff Greg Champagne reports that the above subjects were arrested following an altercation with a 30 year-old Luling Woman. The victim was allegedly involved in an altercation with an individual while attending a funeral earlier in the day. Later that day the above subjects allegedly approached the victim while she was seated inside a vehicle. The subjects allegedly punched the victim through an open window then grabbed her by her feet and pulled her out of the vehicle causing her to strike her head on the concrete and briefly lose consciousness. It appears this altercation was related to the previous altercation, which occurred at a Boutte funeral. All subjects were arrested and booked accordingly.
