Arrests of Magazine Vendors

After receiving information from citizens deputies have been able to locate and arrest the individuals listed below, who have been going door-to-door selling magazines. These individuals were falsely representing that they were selling for a local school group or charity.

Sheriff Champagne would like to remind everyone to be careful of anyone coming to your door; always ask for verification. Any legitimate non-profit cause will have verifiable documentation on them. Anyone going door- to-door for strictly commercial sales must have a permit and ID card issued by St. Charles Parish Sheriff's Office in accordance with Parish Ordinances.
