The St. Charles Parish Sheriff's Office reports a female contacted the sheriff's office from St. Charles Hospital to report she was at her residence when a male arrived at the residence. She advised the male was intoxicated and began yelling at her. The yelling turned into a physical altercation when the male struck her several times, strangled her, threatened her with a firearm, and then refused to allow her to leave the residence. The female was able to make her escape when the male fell asleep. The male was taken into custody and booked accordingly.
