UPDATE ON ATTEMPTED SECOND DEGREE MURDER JULY 1, 2016

As a result of the continuing investigation into the shooting which occurred on June 28, 2016 on Churchill Downs Drive in Montz, Louisiana, resulting in the arrest of Chad Guillot, two more arrest have been made.

Mitchell Beard, a 30 year old male from 107 Churchill Downs Drive in Montz was arrested on June 30, 2016 at 12:49 a.m. for Aggravated Burglary, two counts of Felony Carrying Illegal Weapon, and Illegal Use of a Weapon.

Blanche Naquin, a 37 year old female from 106 Churchill Downs Drive in Montz was arrested on June 30, 2016 at 4:15 p.m. for Accessory to Attempted Second Degree Murder, Accessory to Felony Carrying Illegal Weapon, and Felony Carrying Illegal Weapon.

After questioning additional parties involved in the incident, it was determined that Daniel Villa was staying at Blanche Naquin's residence, at her request, while she was away from home. On the morning of June 28, 2016, prior to Blanche Naquin and Chad Guillot arriving at the residence, Mitchell Beard arrived at 106 Churchill Downs Drive and broke into the residence. At nearly the same time, Blanche Naquin and Chad Guillot arrived at Blanche Naquin's residence causing Mitchell Beard to flee from the rear of the residence. Upon arriving at the residence, Chad Guillot and Daniel Villa were involved in a verbal altercation at which time Daniel Villa attempted to leave. As Daniel Villa was leaving in his vehicle, Chad Guillot approached the vehicle and shot Daniel Villa once in the chest resulting in a non-life threatening injury.

Daniel Villa relocated to the residence of Mitchell Beard to have someone transport him to a hospital. As Daniel Villa arrived, Mitchell Beard allegedly fired a shotgun in an unknown direction then fled the scene.
