ALL ST. CHARLES PARISH SHERIFFS' DEPUTIES TO BE HONORED AS DEPUTY OF THE YEAR

St. Charles Parish Sheriff Greg Champagne is proud to announce that his entire staff will be recognized as Deputy of the Year.

In lieu of naming a single employee as deputy of the year, all deputies collectively will be honored as "Deputy of The Year". The St. Rose American Legion Post will recognize the group this Friday September 16th during its annual Americanism Program.

In the past several months his deputies aided in funeral escorts after the horrific events effecting the Law Enforcement Officers in Dallas, Texas and in Baton Rouge, Louisiana. They also provided additional manpower for an overwhelmed East Baton Rouge Sheriff's Office and Livingston Parish as deputies rushed to the aid of victims during the record flood effecting much of the State of Louisiana.

"Throughout these difficult times, the members of the St. Charles Parish Sheriff's Office performed admirably and were eager to volunteer to help wherever necessary. Due to the collective effort throughout the Sheriff's Office, I was not able to single any one individual's actions for recognition in light of what every employee in the Sheriff's Office has joined together to accomplish," said Sheriff Champagne. "Our members are a team, and act as a team".
